

EMPLOYEE'S RIGHTS & DUTIES UNDER SECTION 306 (f.1) OF THE PENNSYLVANIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT

If you are injured while at work and medical treatment is necessary, you are required to visit one of the physicians or health care providers on the list designated by your employer for a period of 90 days from your first visit with the physician or health care provider.

All reasonable medical treatment and supplies (e.g. medicines, prosthetics) related to the injury will be paid for by the employer provided treatment is by a designated physician or health care provider on the list during the 90-day period. Charges for treatment and supplies are specified by the ACT. You are not responsible for the payment of any charges in excess of those specified by the ACT.

During the 90-day period, you may change from one designated physician or health care provider on the list to another physician or health care provider on the list, and the treatment will be paid for by the employer.

If the designated physician or health care provider refers you to a non-designated provider, the employer will pay for the treatment by the non-designated provider.

You have the right to obtain emergency medical treatment from a non-designated physician or health care provider however, the subsequent non-emergency treatment must be by a designated physician or health care provider for the remainder of the 90-day period.

You may seek treatment or consultation from a non-designated physician or health care provider during the 90-day period however, you are responsible for the charges for this treatment during the 90-day period.

If the employer designated physician or health care provider recommends invasive surgery, you are permitted to obtain a second opinion from a non-designated physician or health care provider. Your employer will pay for the cost for this opinion. If this opinion differs from the opinion of the designated physician or health care provider and provides a specific and detailed course of treatment, you may elect to undergo this treatment. The treatment however must be provided by a designated physician or health care provider for 90 days from the date of the visit to the non-designated physician.

You have the right to seek treatment from any physician or health care provider after the 90-day period has ended, and your employer will pay for this treatment provided it is reasonable and necessary.

You have the duty to notify your employer of treatment by a non-designated physician or health care provider within five days of your first visit to this physician or provider. Your employer may not be required to pay for treatment by a non-designated physician or health care provider prior to notification. The employer however shall pay for this treatment once notified unless the treatment is found to be unreasonable.

Signing this form is an acknowledgment of your rights and duties. You may not refuse to sign this acknowledgment in order to avoid your duties.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Bureau of Workers' Compensation at 1-800-482-2383 or 1-717-783-5421.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES IN CASE OF WORK-RELATED INJURIES

1. If you suffer a work-related injury, your employer or its insurance company must pay for reasonable surgical and medical services and supplies, orthopedic appliances and prosthesis, including training in their use.
2. In order to insure that your medical treatment will be paid for by your employer or the insurance company, you must select from one of the following health care providers. You must continue to visit one of the providers listed below, if you need treatment, for ninety (90) days from the date of your first visit.
3. If one of the providers below refers you to another licensed specialist, your employer or their insurer will pay the bill for these services.
4. After this ninety- (90) day period, if you still need treatment and your employer has provided a list as set forth above, you may choose to go to another health care provider for treatment. You should notify your employer of this action within five days of your visit to said provider.
5. If a physician on the list prescribes invasive surgery, you may obtain a second opinion from any physician of your choice. If the second opinion is different than the listed physician's opinion, you may determine which course of treatment to follow; however, the second opinion must contain a specific and detailed treatment plan. If you choose the second opinion, the procedures in that opinion must be performed by one of the physicians on the list for the first ninety- (90) days. Therefore, in this situation, the employee may be required to treat with an employer designated provider for up to 180 days.
6. If you are faced with a medical emergency, you may secure assistance from a hospital, physician, or health care provider of your choice for your work related injury. However, when the emergency is resolved, you must seek treatment from a provider listed below.
