REVISED:

22 PA Code 12.1, 12.4, 15.1 et seq, 4.4 24 P.S. 1301, 1310, 1601-C et seq, 5004 43 P.S. 951 et seq 20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq 34 CFR Part 106 29 U.S.C.794 42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq, 1981 et seq, 2000d et seq U.S. Const. Amend XIV, Equal Protection Clause Pol. 103.1	103. DISCRIMINATION/TITLE IX SEXUAL HARASSMENT AFFECTING STUDENTS Authority The Board declares it to be the policy of the Intermediate Unit to provide an equal opportunity for all students to achieve their maximum potential through the programs and activities offered by the Intermediate Unit without discrimination on the basis of race, color, age, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, national origin, marital status, pregnancy, or handicap/disability. The Board also declares it to be the policy of this Intermediate Unit to comply with federal law and regulations under Title IX prohibiting sexual harassment, which is a form of unlawful discrimination on the basis of sex. Such discrimination shall be referred to throughout this policy as Title IX sexual harassment. Inquiries regarding the application of Title IX to the Intermediate Unit may be referred to the Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer, to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education, or both.
--	---

Pol. 113.1, 218, 233, 317	The Intermediate Unit is committed to the maintenance of a safe, positive learning environment for all students that is free from discrimination by providing all students course offerings, counseling, assistance, services, employment, athletics and extracurricular activities without any form of discrimination, including Title IX sexual harassment. Discrimination is inconsistent with the rights of students and the educational and programmatic goals of the Intermediate Unit and is prohibited at or, in the course of, Intermediate Unit-sponsored programs or activities, including transportation to or from school or school-sponsored activities. Violations of this policy, including acts of retaliation as described in this policy, or knowingly providing false information, may result in disciplinary consequences under applicable Board policy and procedures. The Board directs that the foregoing statement of Board policy be included in each student and staff handbook, and that this policy and related attachments be posted to the Intermediate Unit’s website. The Board requires a notice stating that the Intermediate Unit does not discriminate in any manner, including Title IX sexual harassment, in any Intermediate Unit education program or activity, to be issued to all students, parents/guardians, employment applicants, employees and all unions or professional organizations holding collective bargaining or professional agreements with the Intermediate Unit. All discrimination notices and information shall include the title, office address, telephone number and email address of the individual(s) designated as the Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer. Reports of Title IX Sexual Harassment and Other Discrimination and Retaliation The Board encourages students and third parties who believe they or others have been subject to Title IX sexual harassment, other discrimination or retaliation to promptly report such incidents to the building administrator or program supervisor, even if some elements of the related incident took place or originated away from school grounds, school activities or school conveyances. A person who is not an intended victim or target of discrimination but is adversely affected by the offensive conduct may file a report of discrimination. The student’s parents/guardians or any other person with knowledge of conduct that may violate this policy is encouraged to immediately report the matter to the building administrator or program supervisor.
----------------------------------	---

Pol. 806	A school employee who suspects or is notified that a student has been subject to conduct that constitutes a violation of this policy shall immediately report the incident to the building administrator or program supervisor, as well as properly making any mandatory police or child protective services reports required by law. If the building administrator or program supervisor is the subject of a complaint, the student, third party or a reporting employee shall report the incident directly to the Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer. The complainant or the individual making the report may use the Discrimination/Sexual Harassment/Bullying/Hazing/Dating Violence/Retaliation Report Form attached to this policy for purposes of reporting an incident or incidents in writing; however, verbal reports of an incident or incidents shall be accepted, documented and the procedures of this policy and the relevant attachments followed. The building administrator or program supervisor shall promptly notify the Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer of all reports of discrimination, Title IX sexual harassment or retaliation. The Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer shall promptly contact the complainant regarding the report to gather additional information as necessary, and to discuss the availability of supportive measures. The Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer shall consider the complainant’s wishes with respect to supportive measures. The Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer shall conduct an assessment to determine whether the reported circumstances are most appropriately addressed through the Discrimination Complaint Procedures prescribed in Attachment 2 to this policy, or if the reported circumstances meet the definition of Title IX sexual harassment and are most appropriately addressed through the Title IX Sexual Harassment Procedures and Grievance Process for Formal Complaints in Attachment 3, or other Board policies. Disciplinary Procedures When Reports Allege Title IX Sexual Harassment
Pol 113.1, 233, 113.2, 113.3	When a report alleges Title IX sexual harassment, disciplinary sanctions may not be imposed until the completion of the grievance process for formal complaints outlined in Attachment 3. The Intermediate Unit shall presume that the respondent is not responsible for the alleged conduct until a determination has been made at the completion of the grievance process for formal complaints.
Pol. 113.1, 218, 233, 113.2	When an emergency removal, as described in Attachment 3, is warranted to address an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of an individual, and it is not feasible to continue educational services remotely or in an alternative setting, the normal procedures for suspension and expulsion shall be conducted to accomplish the removal, including specific provisions to address a student with a disability

20 U.S.C. 1232g 34 CFR 106.44 106.45, 106.71, Part 99 34 CFR 106.71	where applicable. When an emergency removal is not required, disciplinary sanctions shall be considered in the course of the Title IX grievance process for formal complaints. Following the issuance of the written determination and any applicable appeal, any disciplinary action specified in the written determination or appeal decision shall be implemented in accordance with the normal procedures for suspensions, expulsions or other disciplinary actions, including specific provisions to address a student with a disability where applicable. Confidentiality Confidentiality of all parties, witnesses, the allegations, the filing of a report and the investigation related to any form of discrimination or retaliation, including Title IX sexual harassment, shall be handled in accordance with applicable law, regulations, this policy, the attachments and the Intermediate Unit's legal and investigative obligations. Retaliation The Board prohibits retaliation by the Intermediate Unit or any other person against any person for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reporting or making a formal complaint of any form of discrimination or retaliation, including Title IX sexual harassment. • Testifying, assisting, participating or refusing to participate in a related investigation, process or other proceeding or hearing. • Acting in opposition to practices the person reasonably believes to be discriminatory. The Intermediate Unit, its employees and others are prohibited from intimidating, threatening, coercing, or discriminating against anyone for actions described above. Individuals are encouraged to contact the Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer immediately if retaliation is believed to have occurred. Definitions Complainant shall mean an individual who is alleged to be the victim. Respondent shall mean an individual alleged to be the perpetrator of the discriminatory conduct.

	environment, or to deter sexual harassment. Supportive measures may include, but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Counseling. • Extensions of deadlines or other course-related adjustments. • Modifications of work or class schedules. • Campus escort services. • Mutual restrictions on contact between the parties. • Changes in work or housing locations. • Leaves of absence. • Increased security. • Monitoring of certain areas of the campus. • Assistance from domestic violence or rape crisis programs. • Assistance from community health resources including counseling resources.
Pol. 113.1, 113.2, 113.3, 103.1, 113	Supportive measures may also include assessments or evaluations to determine eligibility for special education or related services, or the need to review an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Section 504 Service Agreement based on a student’s behavior. This could include, but is not limited to, a manifestation determination or functional behavioral assessment (FBA), in accordance with applicable law, regulations or Board policy.
34 CFR 106.30	Title IX sexual harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An Intermediate Unit employee conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or Intermediate Unit service on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct, commonly referred to as quid pro quo sexual harassment. • Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to an Intermediate Unit education program or activity. • Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking.
34 U.S.C. 12291	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dating violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim and where the existence of such a relationship is determined by the following factors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Length of relationship. - Type of relationship. - Frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

34 U.S.C. 12291	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Domestic violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving federal funding, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.
20 U.S.C. 1092	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sexual assault means a sexual offense under state or federal law that is classified as a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
34 U.S.C. 12291	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stalking, under Title IX means stalking on the basis of sex, for example when the stalker desires to date a victim. Stalking means to engage in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fear for their safety or the safety of others. - Suffer substantial emotional distress.
34 CFR 106.44 34 CFR 106.45 34 CFR 106.30	Such conduct must have taken place during an Intermediate Unit education program or activity and against a person in the United States to qualify as sexual harassment under Title IX. An education program or activity includes the locations, events or circumstances over which the Intermediate Unit exercises substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the harassment occurs. Title IX applies to all of an Intermediate Unit’s education programs or activities, whether such programs or activities occur on-campus or off-campus. Delegation of Responsibility
34 CFR 106.8	In order to maintain a program of nondiscrimination practices that is in compliance with applicable laws and regulations, the Board designates the Director of Human Resources and Labor Relations as the Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer for the Intermediate Unit. The Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer shall publish and disseminate this policy and complaint procedure at least annually to students, parents/guardians, employees and the public. Nondiscrimination statements shall include the position, office address and telephone number of the Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer.

Pol. 150	The Title IX Coordinator/Compliance Officer shall fulfill designated responsibilities to ensure adequate nondiscrimination procedures are in place, to recommend new procedures or modifications to procedures and to monitor the implementation of the Intermediate Unit's nondiscrimination procedures in the following areas, as appropriate: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Curriculum and Materials: Review curriculum guides, textbooks and supplemental materials for discriminatory bias.2. Training: Provide training for students and staff to prevent, identify and alleviate problems of discrimination.3. Resources: Maintain and provide information to staff on resources available to complainants in addition to the school complaint procedure or Title IX procedures, such as making reporting to the police, available support measures such as assistance from domestic violence or rape crisis programs and community health resources including counseling resources.4. Student Access: Review of programs, activities and services to ensure that all students have equal access and are not segregated except when permissible by law or regulation.5. Intermediate Unit Support: Assure that like aspects of educational programs and activities receive like support as to staffing and compensation, facilities, equipment, and related areas.6. Student Evaluation: Review of assessments, procedures, and guidance and counseling materials for stereotyping and discrimination.7.
