

Connecting people to many different resources, all in one phone call.

People can get connected to the Community Connections Team by:

-  (833) 822-7627
-  pittsburghfoodbank.org/snap
-  Online referral form provided to partners

The Food Bank has a SNAP Outreach Team who can provide SNAP information to the community including:

SNAP materials

SNAP tabling at events

SNAP presentations

Creating a partnership so organizations can refer people to the Food Bank for help with applying for SNAP

If you are an organization and want to bring this information to the community, please contact Sam Serrano with our SNAP Outreach Team:

sserrano@pittsburghfoodbank.org

The Community Connections Team is your one-stop shop for the following resources:

SNAP (food stamps): The Food Bank can help you apply for this program which provides money to help purchase groceries. Income guidelines have recently increased. See if you are eligible today!

LIHEAP: The Food Bank can help you apply for LIHEAP along with a SNAP application. This program provides heating assistance.

Medical Assistance: The Food Bank can help you apply for medical assistance along with a SNAP application. This program provides healthcare coverage.

Drive-Up or Walk-In Distributions: Everyone is eligible to attend monthly food distributions throughout our service area. No registration is required.

Local Food Pantry: The Food Bank can help you find the most convenient food pantry for you.

Senior Boxes: The Food Bank can help you sign up for this program available to seniors ages 60 and over who meet income requirements. The senior box provides an additional shelf-stable box of food each month.

Food for Kids and Teens: The Food Bank can help you find after-school and summer food meal programs for children and teenagers.

Employment Resources: The Food Bank can connect you with partners who can help with finding employment, learning new skills, resume writing and more.

Financial Wellness: The Food Bank can connect you with The Financial Empowerment Center for help with saving more money, budgeting, improving your credit score and more.

The Market: The Food Bank can connect people that visit the Food Bank's onsite pantry, called The Market, to all of these resources.

Our Mission

To leverage the power of community to achieve lasting solutions to hunger and its root causes.

